

On item No. 13) of the agenda of the regular General Meeting of Telefónica Czech Republic, a.s., which is to be held on 22 April 2013

Election of the Company's Supervisory Board members

Antonio Manuel Ledesma Santiago (*1972)

Mr. Ledesma holds a degree in Economics from the University of Salamanca and earned a MBA at IESE Business School (Barcelona) in 1998.

Prior to joining the Telefónica Group, Antonio worked several years at JP Morgan Chase where he was a member of the Investment Banking division in Madrid, participating mainly in M&A advisory.

He joined the Telefónica Group in 2002 in the Corporate Development department of Telefónica, S.A. and until 2012 he held different responsibilities in the coordination and execution of mergers and acquisitions transactions within the Telefónica Group, including, among others, the acquisition of mmO2, plc and the IPO of Telefónica Deutschland.

On November 2012, he was appointed Director of the Telefónica Europe Chairman and CEO's Office.